

2nd UCC Biomedical and Clinical Student and Resident Research Symposium

Thursday, April 21, 2022

12:00N - 2:00PM

PROGRAM

8:00am to 11:00am	Poster Setup
12:00n Computer Lab	Introduction	Dr. David Rivera - Moderator Assistant Professor Second Year Director School of Medicine
12:05pm	Welcome Messages	Dr. Waleska Crespo, President Dr. José A. Capriles, Dean of Medicine Dr. Diana M. Fernández, Associate Dean for Research & Graduate Studies
12:10pm – 12:25pm	Presentation: “Interdisciplinary research is necessary to solve grand challenges: What can chiropractic bring to the table?”	Pierre Côté, DC, PhD Professor; Canada Research Chair in Disability Prevention and Rehabilitation Director, Institute for Disability and Rehabilitation Ontario Tech University
12:30pm – 12:45pm	Presentation: “Ergosterol peroxide effects, sub-localization and potential biological targets on aggressive breast cancer models”	Michelle M. Martínez, PhD Associate Professor Department of Biochemistry Universidad Central del Caribe
12:50PM Room 204	Poster Session
1:50pm Computer Lab	Student Recognitions	Dr. Waleska Crespo, President Dr. José A. Capriles, Dean of Medicine Dr. Diana M. Fernández, Associate Dean for Research & Graduate Studies Dr. Luz Ramos, Dean of Health Sciences and Technology
2:00pm	Closing Remarks	Dr. David Rivera